With the right suite of plugins built into the backend, you can dramatically (and instantly) improve the functionality, aesthetics, and efficiency of your site, both for yourself and your audience. But with a myriad of options available to the average webmaster, the challenge of finding the best WordPress plugins can feel everything but impossible. After all, it only requires one line of code or installation to turn a previously beautiful and sophisticated website into a mess of meaningless code, mysterious themes and broken features. You don't have to worry. We did all of the heavy lifting for you and installed and reviewed countless WordPress plugins to determine at once which plugins are worth your time and which are not. So, here's a list of the top 12 WordPress plugins for 2020, without any further advice. 1. Contact Form 7 If you need a plug-in that seamlessly creates and manages multiple contact forms, uses reCaptcha validation, and verifies that all spam submissions are excluded in Askimet (more on that in a second), Contact Form 7 is the last WordPress the plug-in needs. This simple plugin allows you to skip all the extra coding and quickly create and publish beautiful contact forms that users blow up their inboxes. With over 5 million active installations, 1,100 5-star reviews, and absolutely free low prices, you can promise that you won't find a better contact form plugin anywhere on the interweb.
